

In Daytona Beach Shores, residents enjoy a beach town lifestyle with year-round beautiful weather, plenty of activities and family fun. The peaceful, laid back atmosphere attracts those seeking to work and live in a place where neighbors are friends and hospitality is overflowing. With 4,000 residents that call The Shores home, the community has retained its small town charm. Luxury condos, quaint townhouses, apartments and single-family homes dot the coastline offering residents their choice of dream home lifestyles.

As well, various gated communities are located throughout the area. Visitors bring the population to 16,000 in the winter and 30,000 during special events. The Shores draws those seeking to take time off from the rush of the work week and relax to the sound of the ocean washing along the shore. The Active Senior Center provides fun for seniors 62 and up. Computer classes, Internet club, bingo, yoga, Tai Chi classes, day trips, bike-week cruise and movie nights are a few of the ways the Center keeps its members busy.
