

Despite its proximity to the Daytona Beach area and Atlantic Ocean beaches—with more than eight million tourists annually—New Smyrna Beach has a quiet charm and small-town ambiance all its own. New Smyrna Beach is home to a nationally recognized cultural center for performing and visual arts. A vibrant beach side boutique shopping district, historic downtown and antique district, excellent restaurants and beautiful parks contribute to the charm. Golfing, fishing (freshwater and saltwater) and a host of recreational activities are part of everyday life. It is a community in which the schools, churches and cultural diversity play an important role. New Smyrna Beach has a strong community spirit and offers a superior quality of life for families to live, work, learn and play.
